NTEU Can Help During Your Probationary Period

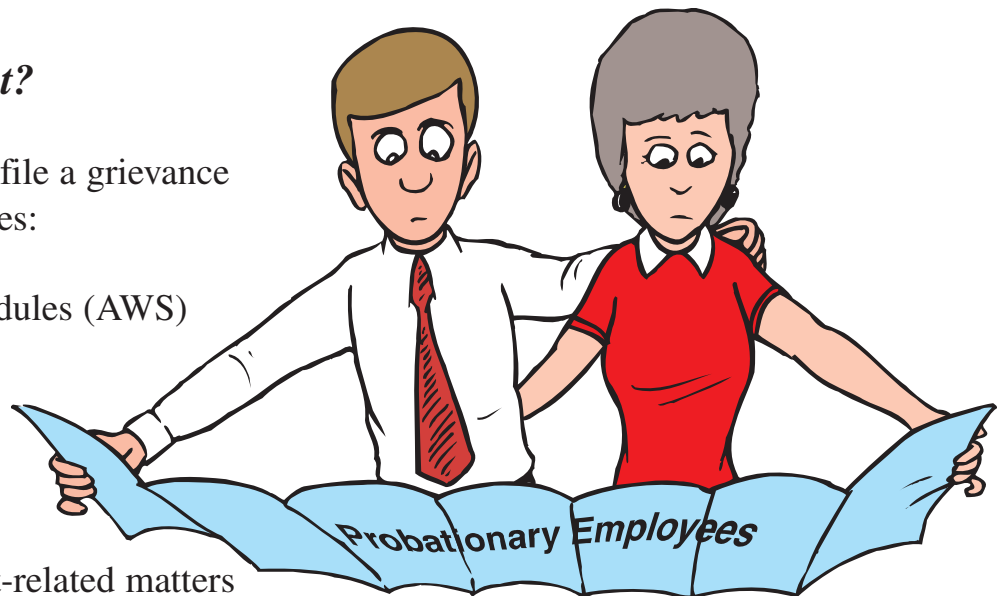

As a probationary employee, your activities and performance are closely monitored, but there's no need to be nervous.

NTEU provides support, advice and information to help our members successfully complete your probationary period.

Need more help than that?

If necessary, NTEU can also file a grievance for you on the following issues:

- Alternative Work Schedules (AWS)
- Denial of leave
- Health and safety
- Eligibility for career ladder promotions

And many other employment-related matters

Remember, NTEU has no obligation to assist non-members with oral replies in connection with removals, long-term suspensions, or reductions in grade, but we can and do for our members.

NTEU also provides federal employees with a strong voice in the courts, the media, and Congress.
